THE GONANO NUROOF WARRANTY

Protection that outlasts the fine print.

Most roof warranties quietly shrink the year you might actually need them. GoNano's premium systems stay at 100% for the full term — and work right alongside your shingle manufacturer's warranty for two layers of protection.

WHY HOMEOWNERS CHOOSE GONANO

Six reasons it stands out

Up to 20 years of coverage

Long-term protection against treatment-related peeling, curling and warping — far beyond a typical roof job.

100% — no shrinking payout

On our 2-coat Fortify & Fortify Elite systems, coverage stays at full value for the entire term. No proration.

A second layer of protection

GoNano works alongside your shingle manufacturer's warranty — you keep that, and add GoNano on top.

We fix it first — free

A covered issue starts with a free inspection and a complete re-treatment (labour included) by your certified contractor.

Transferable — adds resale value

Pass remaining coverage to the next owner. A documented roof warranty is a real selling point at listing time.

Fair & consumer-friendly

Disputes go to mediation and then court if needed — no forced binding arbitration. Your statutory rights are preserved.

IT ADDS TO WHAT YOU ALREADY HAVE

Two layers of protection

GoNano doesn't replace your shingle warranty — it strengthens it.

Your roof, protected from two directions

LAYER 2 GoNano NuRoof — covers treatment-related peeling, curling & warping that a shingle warranty doesn't.

LAYER 1 Your shingle manufacturer's warranty — covers manufacturing defects in the shingle. You keep this in full.

= Two warranties working together. You keep your manufacturer coverage and add GoNano on top.

THE TERMS, SIDE BY SIDE

How GoNano compares

Against the standard warranty a homeowner typically receives from each major shingle maker.

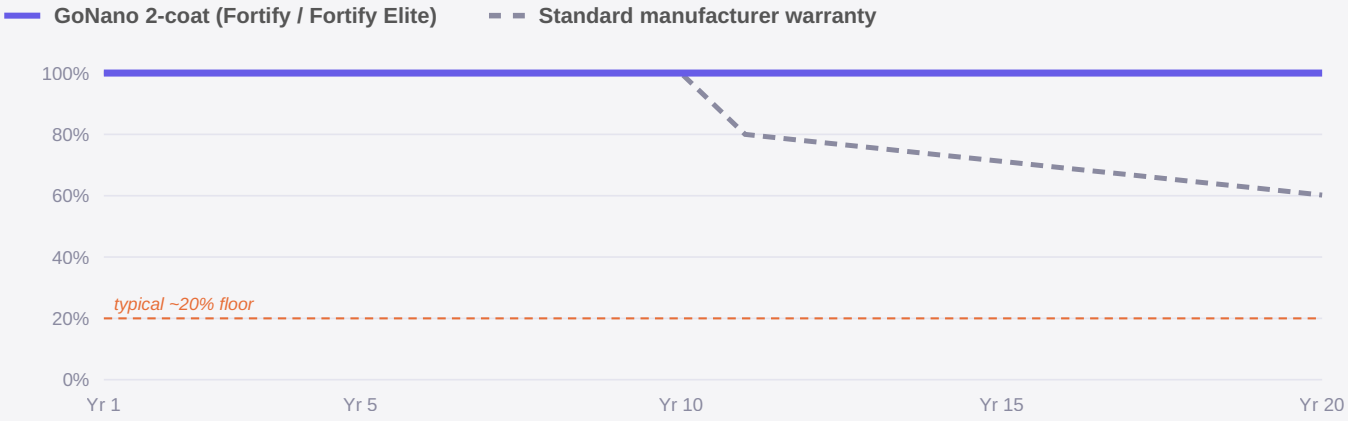
Different coverage, working together. A shingle maker covers manufacturing defects; GoNano covers treatment-related peeling, curling and warping — protection your shingle warranty doesn't include. Comparison reflects GoNano's 2-coat Fortify & Fortify Elite systems for the non-prorated figures.

WHY “NON-PRORATED” MATTERS TO YOU

The difference in plain numbers

A standard manufacturer warranty pays full value for roughly the first decade, then the payout drops year after year. GoNano’s premium systems hold at 100% the whole time.



Illustrative. Share of the covered amount payable by warranty year. Exact manufacturer curves vary by brand and product; GoNano’s single-coat systems are prorated — see the lineup below.

▢ Highlighted rows are the non-prorated 2-coat systems that hold 100% for the full term. Material cap is the most GoNano contributes per square foot toward replacement shingles; coverage applies up to 5,000 sq ft of treated area — comfortably above a typical home’s roof.

THE QUESTION EVERYONE ASKS

“Will the coating void my shingle warranty?”

No — and the law backs you up. A shingle manufacturer can’t cancel your warranty just because a treatment was applied; it would have to prove the treatment actually caused a defect. Your non-waivable consumer-protection rights stay intact.

And GoNano stands behind you: if a manufacturer ever tries to deny a claim because of the NuRoof treatment, GoNano helps you pursue that claim at no cost and can provide lab (FTIR) documentation of the treatment.

About this comparison. Manufacturer terms are summarised from published warranty documents and may change; always verify against the current source warranty. GoNano covers treatment-attributable peeling, curling and warping and works alongside — not in place of — the shingle manufacturer’s warranty. Non-prorated figures refer to the 2-coat Fortify and Fortify Elite systems; single-coat systems are prorated as shown in the lineup. Coverage, caps and remedies are governed by the full Limited Warranty Terms & Conditions (v12 (CAN) — Formal Limited Warranty Terms & Conditions, Les Produits GoNano Inc.), which control.
